Thanks for the charts and group sheets on the Burkharts. We will add them to our files. I feel that there must still be Burkhart descendants in this area. In fact, the Spring 1985 Clay County Researcher lists Dwight and Lynne Lingenfelter, 1309 S. 20th, Terre Haute IN 47803, as seeking information of Burkhardt, Veit, and Dierdorff/ Deardorff families.

I am returning your map with the location of Mt. Pleasant cemetery marked and also a copy of a 1983 plat map of the same area. You will see that there is a church with the cemetery on the old map. That was the Mt. Pleasant Methodist Episcopal Church, which was built in 1833. The church still exists but has been moved across the road from the cemetery. I do not know if they have records of those buried in the cemetery but you might write them. It is the Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church, RR 27, 812-232-4808.

Mt. Pleasant Cemetery was copied and is listed in Cemeteries, Vigo County, Indiana, volume three, pages 129-194. The cemetery books were compiled by Virginia Wilhoit and Nelson Eddy, and they copied the stones rather than locating burial records. There are no Burkharts listed in Mt. Pleasant, but Wilhoit and Eddy made the comment that the cemetery had been vandalized and that there were unreadable stones and unmarked graves. I would have thought that a stone as recent as 1911 should have been readable. Perhaps Abigail's body was later moved to Clay county. Maybe Virginia Wilhoit, 1901 Washington Ave., Terre Haute IN 47803, and Nelson Eddy, 1634 2nd Ave., Terre Haute IN 47807, could tell you more about the cemetery.

I didn't find anything about St. Luke's Episcopal Church. It is not mentioned in the Vigo county histories nor in a history of Clay City and Harrison township. It is not in the Brazil or the Clay City telephone directory. As you said, it is very frustrating.

I wonder if you could find out anything by writing the Clay County Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 211, Bazil IN 47834? There is also a genealogical query column in the local newspaper. The address is: Genealogy, Dorothy Clark, Terre Haute Tribune-Star, 721 Wabash Ave., Terre Haute IN 47808.

Dear Ms Sherrill:

Thank you so very much for the information you provided on the telephone this afternoon. It really put a klinker in my thinker. The death certificate I have on my Greatgrandmother, Abigail BURKHART, indicated that she was buried in Clay City or County though she lived and died in Vigo. After talking with you I began to think - wouldn't it be more logical that she be buried nearer home, but my aunt had said she was buried in Clay City and that she had visited the site and further stated that there was just one large monument with smaller stones or markers around identifying other Burkharths. By the way, to refresh your memory, Abigail died 1 April, 1911 & you found the obituary in the paper 2 April, 1911 which stated she was to be buried at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery. I figured it would be simple to call the funeral director listed in Clay City and find the location of the cemetery. Four telephone calls later I find no one can pinpoint one so named other than the one you mentioned as being in Honey Creek Township South of Terre Haute. Church on site of Mt Pleasant Cem. has been rebuilt across road. Methodist Church built 1833

Will you do me another favor and mark the enclosed township map with the location of the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery and return to me? Please!

Mt Pleasant United Methodist Church RR 27-232-4808

Since you said there were no readings of this cemetery and that vandals have worked their miserable way, I suppose there is little chance that the markers would still be readable even if there. If you happen to know any one who has an interest in this type research please ask them to get in touch with me - I'd be willing to pay someone a reasonable amount just to take a look and report any Burkhardt stones that might be there.

My interest in finding her burial site isn't morbid. I am hoping that her first husband, Peter Burkhardt, is buried there also and that his birth and death dates can be confirmed. You see, Abigail was a Burkhardt when she married Peter in Coshocton County Ohio Oct., 1860. Her father and Mother had moved to Clay County in 1851 and each died by 1858, leaving small children. Abigail returned to Ohio, apparently met Peter and married him - then moved back to Clay County. He supposedly died ca. Dec., 1867 and my grandfather, Elander "Lee" Burkhardt was born in February 1868. I found Abigail & Elander in the 1870 census of Clay County, but not in the same household. The next time I find them anywhere (Except mentioned in "History of Clay County" by Travis) is in the 1900 and 1910 Census of Vigo County wherein they are identified as mother & son.

Nancy. I do not see this name in Whitte Cem. Records.

*Condensed, Vigo County, Indiana vol 3 pp 129-174 - No Burkharths

The reason I asked about St. Lukes Episcopal Church records was an effort to find the true birth place of my father. Since my grand parents, Elander Burkhart and Effie White were married by the Rector, William Mitchell, on 7 December, 1898, I thought Dad's birth and christening may have been recorded there. If the church folded, I wonder who would have retained the records? Grandfather said my father, Paul was born in CLAY County 19 August, 1905 in an affidavit for a delayed birth certificate, but it just doesn't seem reasonable to me that she would leave a larger city such as Terra Haute to go to a farm in Clay County to have a child although her parents, Louis Van White and Eliza Ann Gonser White, may have insisted on her doing so.

I know that I have gone on too much in this letter, but there is alot more to the story which just frutrates me and I don't think I'll be satisfied until I know the answers.

Nancy, I am going to send several of my perinent Ancestor Charts and Family Group Sheets for ~~your~~ retention in your genealogical section. If you don't want them feel free to deep six them.

Again, many thanks for your information about Abigail.

Sincerely,

Paul C. Burkhart

P.S. I have a photograph of Grandparents with Dad's two brothers and sister taken obviously just a short time before Dad was born. It is in the park there in Terra Haute and shows the typical family scene with an unknown couple with them and a horse and carriage in the background. A real nostalgic scene! My Uncle Erman gave me the photo and told me where it was taken.

Tallahassee Genealogical Society members are requested to ALWAYS place their assigned number in the space provided in the upper left corner of the chart. An accepted way to prepare the chart is to assign yourself as # 1. Your father will then be # 2 and your mother # 3. Your grandfather on the paternal side will be # 4 and his wife # 5. Your grandfather on the maternal side will be # 6 and his wife # 7. Your great-grandfather on the paternal side will be # 8 and his wife # 9. Males will always have even numbers and females odd numbers. For instance, Chart # 10 might begin with Lineage Number 25; one of your Great-great-grandmothers.

In the spaces below provide information as to where you found the information provided on the face of this form for each person by Lineage No; such as: Birth certificate; 1850 Census, Leon Cty, Fl; Family Bible (in possession of Emily Bott, Mrs. J.M., Quincy, Fl. 1981); marriage certificate; baptism records, 1st Presbyterian Church, Tala., Fl.; "Leon Cty Marriage Records" by G.W. -----; etc.
